CINCINNATI. O. Dec. 26.—A new in-dictment against Mrs. Jeannette Stew-art-Ford, charging blackmall, was re-turned by the Hamilton county grami-jury today. It is designed to cure possi-ble defects in the similar charge returned several weeks ago, the woman's attor-neys having attacked the first indictment in court.

charles I. Warriner, former local treasurer of the Fig Four railway, who is under sentence of six years imprisonment for embezgling, was summoned to the grand jury room two hours before the bill was returned.

The incident on which the new indictment is based is alleged in the bill to have occurred November I. 1992. Mrs. Ford is charged with having demanded $2,000 from Warriner on that date, threatening exposure of his shortage if he refused her demands.

WESTERN EDUCATION TO TAKE CHAIR AT YALE

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 39.—Ernest Carroll Moore, superintendent of schools in Los Angeles, has been elected to the newly established professorship of education at Yale university. He has accepted. Two citigens of Connecthar have promised $29.000 each toward the endowment of this professorship, and it is believed that the balence can be raised in the state, as the purpose of the chair is not only to afford instruction in the history and the theory of education at the university, but to co-operate with public school teachers and superintendents in improving educational conditions.

Professor Moore will take up his work at Yale next fall.
